

Bill Number: H.B. 4005

Hoffman Floor Amendment

Reference to: House engrossed bill

Amendment drafted by: Leg. Council

FLOOR AMENDMENT EXPLANATION

1. Replaces the requirement for each school district to offer the artificial intelligence (AI) instruction with a requirement for each school district to provide the AI instruction to all students enrolled in grades 3, 6, 8, 10 and 12.
2. Directs the Arizona Department of Education (ADE) to adopt AI instruction curriculum that includes instruction on:
 - a) basic techniques for using AI, including for writing prompts;
 - b) ethical considerations for using and adopting AI in learning and daily life; and
 - c) how AI might threaten human health and human existence.
3. Requires ADE, for the purposes of adopting the AI instruction curriculum, to select a curriculum that is developed by an organization that:
 - a) is a school within an Arizona public university that maintains a campus in the most populous county within Arizona;
 - b) was established between 2015 and 2018;
 - c) fosters a culture of intellectual diversity and promotes ideas that are foundational to a healthy constitutional democracy; and
 - d) serves as a community resource for civic education.
4. Makes technical and conforming changes.
