5 consisting of the following members:

6 1. Two members of the senate{{[.]}} ~~{{who are}}~~ ~~{{One member shall~~ 7 ~~be}}~~ appointed by the president of the senate and ~~{{who are members of~~ 8 ~~different political parties}}~~ {{[, one member shall be appointed by the 9 minority leader of the senate]}}. The president of the senate shall 10 designate one of these members to serve as cochairperson of the 11 committee. The two members shall reside in or represent a rural or tribal
12 community.

13 2. Two members of the house of representatives{{[.]}} ~~{{who are}}~~ 14 ~~{{One member shall be}}~~ appointed by the speaker of the house of 15 representatives and ~~{{who are members of different political parties}}~~ 16 {{[, one member shall be appointed by the minority leader of the house of 17 representatives]}}. The speaker of the house of representatives shall

1 designate one of these members to serve as cochairperson of the
2 committee. The two members shall reside in or represent a rural or tribal
3 community.

4 3. One member who is appointed by the president of the senate and
5 who represents a nonprofit organization that provides food security,
6 entrepreneurship, youth leadership and housing to a community impacted by 7 coal.

8 4. One member who is appointed by the speaker of the house of 9 representatives and who represents a nonprofit organization that works to 10 protect the water of Black Mesa and to bring power back to Indigenous 11 communities impacted by coal.

12 5. One member who is appointed by the president of the senate and
13 who represents the Navajo Nation economic development division.

14 6. One member who is appointed by the speaker of the house of 15 representatives and who represents a public university in this state that 16 has a program that supports communities impacted by an energy transition, 17 including communities where fossil energy is being retired and where new 18 energy is being developed.

19 7. One member of the Coconino county board of supervisors who
20 represents the supervisorial district where the Navajo generating station
21 operated and who is appointed by the president of the senate.

22 B. The committee shall:

23 1. Meet as often as the cochairpersons deem necessary.

24 2. Investigate and analyze the social and economic effects on 25 communities heavily reliant on the coal industry, particularly in 26 communities experiencing job losses or economic decline due to the 27 transition away from coal power generation, with a focus on developing 28 strategies to mitigate impacts and support economic diversification in 29 those communities.

30 C. The committee may use the services of legislative staff to 31 provide necessary administrative and operational support. On request of 32 the committee, an agency of this state or a political subdivision of this 33 state shall provide the committee with services, equipment, documents, 34 personnel and facilities, to the extent possible, at no cost to the 35 committee.

36 D. On or before December 31, 2026, the committee shall submit a
37 report of its findings and recommendations to the governor, the president 38 of the senate and the speaker of the house of representatives and shall 39 provide a copy of this report to the secretary of state.

40 E. This section is repealed from and after September 30, 2027.

1 Sec. 2. Appropriation: office of economic opportunity:
2 workforce development study; exemption

3 A. The sum of [~~$600,000~~] [$300,000] is appropriated from the state 4 general fund in fiscal year 2026-2027 to the office of economic 5 opportunity to conduct a workforce development study on the communities in 6 Coconino county impacted by the closure of the Navajo generating station.

7 B. The appropriation made in subsection A of this section is exempt
8 from the provisions of section 35-190, Arizona Revised Statutes, relating 9 to lapsing of appropriations.
